

Kings of the Wild

Jonathan and Angela Scott

1. Read the blurb on the back. Explain what you think this book will be about.
 2. Explain what a glossary does.
 3. Where are Brown Bears found?
 4. Why do Brown Bears stand on two legs?
 5. Describe why Brown Bears are good hunters.
 6. Where are Brown Bears mainly found now?
 7. What is an omnivore?
 8. Make a list of all the things that bears eat from this book.
 9. Why do bears fight?
 10. What does 'a pecking order' mean?
 11. Explain what hibernation is.
 12. Why do mother bears leave their den after other bears?
 13. Create a timeline of a year in the life of a bear, including all the important events.
 14. Why are many bears endangered?
-
- © Jorge Sanz / Pacific / Barcroft

Fast Finishers

Create an information chart about the Brown Bear. Use the information in this book and other research. Present your work neatly either on a full page of your book or in poster form using Canva.

Complete page 41 of the Red Reading Folder.